

Site assessment and system selection

The flow chart below gives an overview of the principal off-mains drainage options, helping you select the best solution for your site. Whatever system you choose, you must satisfy the relevant authorities that it will:

- Treat or contain the effluent, providing a long term sustainable solution
- Be correctly specified to cope with expected usage levels
- Pose no threat to water resources
- Prevent nuisance.

